

Clete Edmunson, Special Assistant for Education and Transportation, office of Governor C.L. “Butch” Otter

Clete Edmunson is the Special Assistant for Education and Transportation in the Office of Governor Butch Otter. Mr. Edmunson was born and raised on a ranch near Council, Idaho. He went on to Idaho State University where he earned degrees in business management and secondary education while playing four years of intercollegiate football. After teaching American Government classes at New Plymouth High School for 12 years he was elected to three terms in the Idaho State Legislature as a member of the House of Representatives. In the House he served on the Business Committee, the Environment, Energy and Technology Committee, as well as serving as vice-chair of the State Affairs Committee. He was also a member and chair of the Western Legislative Forestry Task Force. After five years in the Legislature, he was appointed to his current position by Governor Otter.