

Table of Contents

Communities in Motion: A Regional Long-Range Transportation Plan

Executive Summary	1
Introduction	9
Chapter 1 – Taking Shape	17
A Region Takes Shape.....	17
An Organization Takes Shape: Community Planning Association of Southwest Idaho	22
A Regional Long-Range Transportation Plan Takes Shape: Communities in Motion	24
A Community Becomes Engaged: Public Outreach, Education, Involvement.....	26
A Budget Does NOT Take Shape.....	34
Chapter 2 – Defining the Vision	35
Where do we want to be in 2030?.....	35
Vision, Goals, and Scenarios	35
Goals/Objectives/Tasks	42
Chapter 3 – Getting Around	61
Roadways.....	61
Transit Services	62
Freight Services	66
Short-Range Funded (Committed) Projects.....	72
Congestion Management System	75
Functional Street Classification.....	75
Transit Classification	78
Non-Motorized Classification.....	78
Chapter 4 – Designing the Future	81
Land Use in the Treasure Valley: Two Visions of the Future	81
Scenario Comparisons.....	83
The Plan for Future Corridors	84
The Corridors Defined.....	97
Special Future Studies	154
Chapter 5 – Finding the Money	159
Federal Requirements.....	159
The Importance of Financial Analysis.....	159
A Summary of Transportation Revenues	160

Table of Contents (continued)

Where does the money come from?	161
How are projects budgeted?	176
Cost of Transportation Projects	177
What is the shortfall and what does it mean for the average household?.....	180
Financial Summary.....	183
Federal Highway Programs.....	185
Chapter 6 – Looking Beyond 2030	187
Setting the Stage	187
Growth Beyond 2030.....	188
The Next Plan	196
In Sum.....	197
Appendix	199
Bibliography.....	200
Definitions	207
Acronyms.....	218
Acknowledgements	220