

Complete Streets

COMPASS adopted a "Complete Streets" policy in August 2009 to promote roadways with an appropriate balance for motorists, bicyclists, transit, and pedestrians of all ages and abilities. By considering all users of roads, communities can increase their safety, efficiency, and economic vitality.

