

- I'd be willing to pay more in taxes to pay for transportation, but the taxes need to be fair to everyone.

What We've Heard:

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- I'm getting older and may not always be able to drive myself. I'm going to need some way to get around town.

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- We have enough roads; we just need to fix the ones we have.

What We've Heard:

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- If we're going to pay more in taxes for transportation, it needs to be a little at a time. I don't have the money to write a big check once a year.

What We've Heard:

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- Don't spend money on landscaping if there isn't enough money for roads and buses.

What We've Heard:

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- I'd like to use the bus, but the bus stop is so far from my house that I would have to drive to get there.

What We've Heard:

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- If we wait [to fix roads] it will cost more.

What We've Heard:

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- My family doesn't make much money, but we would be willing to pay more in taxes if it means a better bus system. With a better bus system, we could access better jobs and make more money.

What We've Heard:

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- We all say we want more transit [buses], but no one wants to give up the independence of driving a car.

What We've Heard:

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- Use a combination of different ways to collect money for transportation.

What We've Heard:

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- Landscaping is important. Nice landscaping, with trees and sidewalks, can encourage more people to walk.

What We've Heard:

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- I want a better bus system, but I want better roads too. A good bus system won't be any good without good roads for it to run on.

What We've Heard:

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- More taxes for transportation are OK, as long as you tie the tax to the use.

What We've Heard:

Communities in Motion Focus Groups, 2009

- Having more buses is more important than having more trees.
