

The DNA of City Streets: Rethinking the Use of Street Right of Way

Wednesday, December 10, 2014 6:00pm-7:00pm

Boise State University Student Union Building: AB Jordon Ballroom

Join us for an exciting, free lecture on street design dynamics and their impacts on our communities.

Presented by Peter Koonce

Peter Koonce, P.E., is a transportation engineer working to make systems more sustainable. He has worked in the public and private sectors serving communities with both practical and innovative solutions in Portland, OR.

