

COMPASS Announces 2013 Leadership in Motion Award Winners

Meridian, ID – The Community Planning Association of Southwest Idaho (COMPASS) presented its fifth annual Leadership in Motion awards at a luncheon on Monday, December 16, 2013.

The Leadership in Motion awards program recognizes businesses, individuals, and projects that demonstrate leadership in supporting Communities in Motion, the regional long-range transportation plan for Ada and Canyon Counties.

The 2013 COMPASS Leadership in Motion award winners are:

- Leadership in Government, Canyon County
 - City of Nampa
 - Project: Historic Mercy Hospital Plan
- Leadership in Government, Ada County
 - Ada County Highway District and City of Kuna
 - Project: Kuna Downtown Corridor Plan
- Leadership in Private Business/Nonprofit
 - Boise Bicycle Project
- Leadership in Practice, Professional
 - Kathleen Lacey, City of Boise
- Leadership in Practice, Citizen/Volunteer
 - Janie Burns, Chair, Treasure Valley Food Coalition
- Leadership by Example, Elected Official
 - Idaho State Senator Bert Brackett

"Numerous outstanding projects and individuals were nominated for their efforts in implementing the goals and vision of Communities in Motion," explains COMPASS Executive Director Matt Stoll.

"We are excited about the diversity of the winners and the nominees. It is inspiring to see the wide variety of projects and individuals who contribute in a myriad of ways to the outstanding quality of life we have here in the Treasure Valley. Congratulations to all of our winners."

Visit www.compassidaho.org/comm/awards.htm to learn more about each recipient. Photos from the awards presentation will be posted on the above web page.